

NISSHA CO., LTD. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE POLICY

Section I Basic Views on Corporate Governance

I Introduction

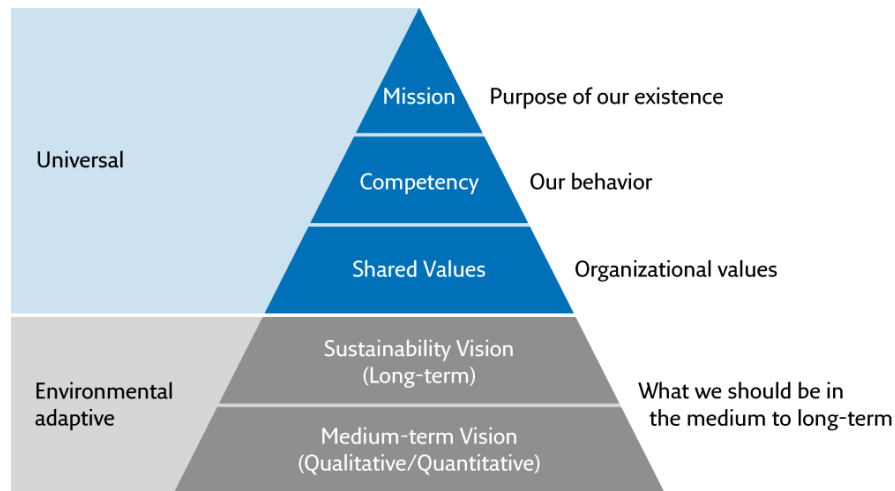

Under its Corporate Governance Policy (hereinafter, the “Policy”), Nissha Co., Ltd. (hereinafter, the “Company”) presents its basic views, framework and operation policy for corporate governance at the Company and its affiliated companies (hereinafter, collectively, the “Group”).

II Basic Views [3.1-ii]

The Company, since its foundation, has been executing strategies that promptly address external challenges, under committed leadership. The Company believes that strengthening corporate governance along with such leadership will promote agile and decisive decision making, as well as ensuring management transparency and fairness. Based on this recognition, the Company places corporate governance as one of the key management issues, strives to maintain and improve it, and seek out sustainable corporate growth and an increase in corporate value over the medium- to long-term.

Nissha Philosophy (Corporate Philosophy)

Nissha has integrated its standards of thought, rules of conduct, and Mission—ideals held in high regard — into Nissha Philosophy that is greatly valued.

Mission

We realize the enrichment of people’s lives by creating technology and developing it into economic and social value through the diverse capabilities, passion, and leadership of the global Nissha Group.

The details of the Nissha Philosophy are disclosed at the following website.
<https://www.nissha.com/english/company/philosophy.html>

Section II Securing Rights and Equal Treatment of Shareholders and Dialogue with Shareholders [1]

I Securing Rights and Equal Treatment of Shareholders [1.1]

1. The Company establishes an environment in which shareholders are able to appropriately exercise their voting rights at general meetings of shareholders. The convenience of exercising voting rights of shareholders shall be ensured through the introduction of electronic exercise via the Internet and the use of the Electronic Voting Platform.
2. The Board of Directors acts to grasp the results of voting at general meetings of shareholders. When a considerable number of votes have been cast against a proposal by the Company and the proposal has been approved, the Board will analyze the reasons behind opposing votes and will make effective use of analytic findings to facilitate disclosure of information and shareholder dialogue. [1.1.1]
3. Fundamentally, the Company will convene a General Meeting of Shareholders on a schedule that avoids days on which a majority of other companies hold their shareholders meetings, and will issue notice of the convocation of a General Meeting of Shareholders by no later than three (3) weeks prior to the meeting date in order to ensure that shareholders have sufficient time to consider the agenda. Prior to issuance of the notice, the content of the notice of the convocation shall be disclosed in Japanese and English on the Company's website, securities exchanges and the Electronic Voting Platform. [1.2.1/2/3/4, 3.1.2]

II Basic Strategy for Capital Policy

1. In an effort to increase sustainable corporate value, the Company's basic strategy for capital policy is to ensure an appropriate balance between the pursuit of capital efficiency and the maintenance and improvement of fiscal soundness. "Return on Equity (ROE)" and "Equity Ratio" targets will be established and published as management control indexes therefor. [1.3, 5.2]
2. The Company, while giving consideration to financial safety, uses cash flows generated by operating activities, etc. mainly for growth investments, including M&As, capital investment, and research and development, which will contribute to the improvement of the corporate value over a medium- to long term. Our basic policy is to provide stable ongoing dividends to our shareholders. In determining distributions of profits to shareholders, the Company implements the basic policy of the consistence dividends by taking into account a full range of factors including its business results, dividend payout ratios, financial soundness, and other factors. In addition, the Company will properly consider special dividends that take into account the business results for the current fiscal year and stock buybacks as a way of improving capital efficiency. [1.3]
3. In the event the Company implements a capital policy which results in a change of control or significant dilution, the Board of Directors will pass a resolution after hearing the objective opinions of experts and otherwise engaging in sufficient deliberation concerning the necessity and rationale thereof from the perspective of increased corporate value, and will provide a sufficient explanation to shareholders and investors. [1.6]

III Strategic Shareholdings [1.4]

1. The Company believes that building relationships of trust with a wide range of customers, suppliers, financial institutions, local communities and others is essential, and holds shares of stock of the enterprises determined necessary for the purpose of increasing sustainable corporate value. In addition, a careful examination will be conducted on the profitability of each holding based on the Company's capital costs to validate the significance and rational of each holding from a medium- to long-term perspective, and a report on the significance and rational of its holdings will be provided to the Board of Directors annually. As a result of such examination, the shares of stock with diluted significance and rational will be gradually reduced while taking into consideration the effect on the market and other factors. A summary of the details of the examination will be disclosed.

2. A standard for the exercising of voting rights will be established from a perspective of increasing the medium- to long-term corporate value of the enterprise and the Company, and a determination on the exercise of voting rights related to strategic shareholdings in favor or against a proposal will be made by the Director of the Board in charge of financial affairs. This may result in a vote against a proposal.

IV Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders [5, 5.1, 5.1.1/2/3]

The Company strives to contribute to its sustainable growth and increase corporate value over the medium-to long-term through constructive dialogue with shareholders.
