February 8, 2013Junya SuzukiPresident and CEONissha Printing Co., Ltd.

Highlights

FY2013 Q3 (October-December) Results

- Sales increased drastically by Devices' contribution and operating profit returned to the black.
- Devices: Full-scale production at Himeji Factory. Volume for the new process (photolithography) increased and profitability improvement progressed.
Demand for game consoles were also progressed steadily.
- Industrial Materials: Demand for notebook PCs slowed down and for mobile phones remained sluggish.

FY2013 Q4 (January-March) Forecast

-While the revision for exchange rate become a plus factor, Devices' up-front expenditure incurred.

- Devices: Enhance the capacity at Himeji Factory ( $30 \%$ increase) and launch vertically to respond to strong demand.
Expand the photolithography process to Kaga Factory. Demand for game consoles sluggish.
- Industrial Materials: Demand for notebook PCs and mobile phones sluggish.

FY2014 Forecast

-Devices will be a driver for sales and profit improvement and turning into black in full year of FY2014 is in sight.
-Enhance commercializing the new technologies and products by reorganization of business portfolio.
