Notice concerning shutdown at a sub-subsidiary company

Nissha Printing Co., Ltd. announced the following shutdown of operations at Nissha Korea High Precision Plastics Inc., its sub-subsidiary company, from August onwards.

1. Reasons for the shutdown

Nissha Korea High Precision Plastics Inc. is responsible for the manufacture of IMD injection molding products in South Korea. The decision has been made to shut down operations from August onwards in the wake of a decline in the IMD business for mobile phones in South Korea and the increasing difficulty in foreseeing a recovery in demand going forward.
